

exhibitions

* Pick of the week

Surreal Things Victoria & Albert Museum, SW7 From skeleton dresses to lobster telephones, the decadent world of the European surrealists of the 1920s to 1940s is revealed in this extraordinary group show.

Dream Home Novas Gallery, SE1 Inspired by Roxy Music's In Every Dream Home A Heartache, 16 artists turn domestic interiors into nightmares.

Jeppe Hein Curve Gallery, Barbican Centre, EC2 Last week to see a collection of gravity defying sculptures of this Danish artist who has transformed the gallery into a rickety rollercoaster.

David Maljkovic Whitechapel Art Gallery, E1 Maljkovic's bleak epic is a futurist piece of cinema set in 2045 and explores our collective memory for brutal events of the past.